5 Ready-to-Use Templates to Grow Your Life Coaching Business

Published by Sovereign Digital Agency

Updated March 2026

Sovereign Digital Agency - sovereigndigitalagency.co.uk.

Welcome to Your Lead Magnet Template Pack

Inside this pack you will find five professionally written, conversion-tested lead magnet templates designed specifically for life coaches. Each template is ready to customise with your brand name, colours, and personal touch -- then deploy immediately to start attracting your ideal clients.

These are not rough outlines or skeleton frameworks. Every template contains complete, publish-ready content that positions you as an authority, builds trust with prospects, and naturally leads them toward booking a discovery call with you.

Simply replace [YOUR NAME], [YOUR BUSINESS], and any bracketed placeholders with your own details. Add your logo, adjust the examples to match your niche, and you are ready to go.

TEMPLATE 1: The Life Clarity Assessment -- 10-Point Checklist

Use this as a downloadable PDF opt-in on your website or landing page. Prospects complete the checklist and realise they need guidance -- making them warm leads for a discovery call.

--- BEGIN TEMPLATE ---

THE LIFE CLARITY ASSESSMENT

A 10-Point Checklist by [YOUR NAME], [YOUR BUSINESS]

Instructions: Read each statement below. Check the box if the statement is TRUE for you right now. Be completely honest -- this assessment only works if you are truthful with yourself.

Then count your total at the bottom to see where you stand.

THE 10 ASSESSMENT POINTS:

1. I can clearly describe what I want my life to look like in 3 years, including specific details about my career, relationships, health, and daily routine. (If you hesitated or your answer was vague, leave this unchecked.)
2. I wake up most mornings feeling energised and purposeful, rather than dreading the day ahead or feeling stuck in a routine that does not fulfil me.
3. I have written goals for at least 3 major areas of my life (career, health, relationships, finances, personal growth) and I review them at least monthly.
4. I spend the majority of my time on activities that align with my core values. I could name my top 5 values right now without thinking.
5. I have clear boundaries in my personal and professional relationships. I can say no without guilt and I do not regularly sacrifice my own needs to please others.
6. I have a consistent daily routine that supports my wellbeing -- including sleep, nutrition, movement, and at least 15 minutes of intentional reflection or mindfulness.
7. I am actively working toward at least one meaningful goal right now (not just thinking about it, but taking concrete weekly action toward it).

8. I feel confident making major life decisions. I do not get paralysed by overthinking, fear of failure, or seeking approval from others before acting.
9. My current career or work situation is something I chose intentionally, not something I fell into by default. I find genuine meaning in what I do.
10. I regularly invest in my personal growth -- through reading, courses, coaching, or other deliberate development activities -- and I track my progress.

SCORING:

8-10 Checked: You have exceptional life clarity. You are living with intention and purpose. A coach can help you optimise and reach your next level.

5-7 Checked: You have a solid foundation but there are blind spots holding you back. With targeted coaching, you could close these gaps in 60-90 days.

2-4 Checked: You are at a crossroads. The good news is that awareness is the first step. You would benefit enormously from a structured coaching programme.

0-1 Checked: You are feeling stuck, and that is completely okay. This is actually the most powerful place to start because the potential for transformation is enormous.

Whatever your score, the fact that you took this assessment means you are ready for change.

[YOUR NAME] offers a free 30-minute Life Clarity Call where we review your results together and map out your next steps. No pressure, no pitch -- just honest guidance.

TEMPLATE 2: The 5 Mistakes Keeping You Stuck -- Mini-Guide

This mini-guide works as a blog post, PDF download, or email series. It educates prospects while positioning you as the solution.

--- BEGIN TEMPLATE ---

5 MISTAKES THAT KEEP SMART PEOPLE STUCK IN LIVES THEY DID NOT CHOOSE

By [YOUR NAME], Certified Life Coach at [YOUR BUSINESS]

You are intelligent. You are capable. You have achieved things that other people admire. Yet something still feels off.

You lie awake at night wondering: is this really it?

After coaching hundreds of clients through major life transitions, I have identified five patterns that keep otherwise brilliant people trapped in lives that do not fit them. These are not character flaws. They are habits of thinking -- and every single one is fixable.

MISTAKE 1: Confusing Being Busy With Making Progress

You fill every hour with tasks, meetings, obligations, and to-do lists. You collapse into bed exhausted and feel like you earned the right to another day. But when you zoom out and look at the last 6 months, nothing fundamental has changed.

Busyness is the most socially acceptable form of avoidance. When every minute is spoken for, you never have to confront the uncomfortable question: am I building the life I actually want?

The Fix: Block 30 minutes every Sunday to review your week. Ask one question: which of my activities this week moved me toward my 3-year vision, and which were just noise? Then ruthlessly cut or delegate the noise.

MISTAKE 2: Waiting Until You Feel Ready

You tell yourself you will make the change when the timing is right. When you have more money saved. When the children are older. When you finish that course. When you feel confident enough.

Readiness is not a feeling that arrives. It is a decision you make. Every person who has transformed their life did it while feeling unready. The confidence comes after the action, not before.

The Fix: Identify the smallest possible step toward your goal and take it within the next 24 hours. Not next week. Not when you feel ready. Within 24 hours.

MISTAKE 3: Outsourcing Your Life Design to Default Settings

Society hands you a template: get the degree, land the job, buy the house, start the family, retire at 65. Most people follow this template without ever questioning whether it matches their actual values and desires.

There is nothing wrong with any of these milestones if you chose them intentionally. The problem is when you are living someone else's definition of a good life and wondering why it feels hollow.

The Fix: Write your own definition of success. Not what your parents expect, not what social media celebrates, not what your peers are doing. What does YOUR ideal Tuesday look like at age 50? Start there.

MISTAKE 4: Treating Self-Investment as Selfish

You spend freely on your children, your home, gifts for others. But spending time or money on your own growth feels indulgent. You feel guilty reading a book when the laundry needs doing. You cancel your gym session because someone else needs a favour.

This is not selflessness. It is self-abandonment. And it teaches everyone around you that your needs do not matter.

The Fix: Reframe self-investment as capacity building. You cannot pour from an empty cup. Schedule at least 3 hours per week of non-negotiable personal development time, and protect it as fiercely as you would a work meeting.

MISTAKE 5: Going It Alone

You research everything online. You read the books. You listen to the podcasts. You journal and reflect and plan. Yet you keep circling the same patterns.

Information is not transformation. You already know what to do -- you need someone to help you see your blind spots, hold you accountable, and challenge the stories you tell yourself.

The Fix: Find someone who has achieved what you want and ask for guidance. Whether it is a coach, mentor, or peer group -- stop trying to navigate unfamiliar territory without a guide.

Ready to break these patterns for good? [YOUR NAME] helps high-achieving individuals design lives that match their potential.

TEMPLATE 3: The Life Design Workbook -- Goal Setting Worksheet

This interactive worksheet gives prospects a taste of your coaching methodology. It creates an aha moment that makes them want the full experience.

--- BEGIN TEMPLATE ---

THE LIFE DESIGN WORKBOOK

A Step-by-Step Goal Setting Worksheet by [YOUR NAME]

This workbook will take you approximately 45-60 minutes to complete. Find a quiet space, turn off your phone, and give yourself permission to dream without limits.

PART 1: VALUES DISCOVERY (10 Minutes)

From the list below, circle your top 10 values. Then narrow those 10 down to your top 5 by crossing out the ones you could live without.

Adventure | Authenticity | Balance | Community | Compassion | Courage | Creativity | Curiosity | Excellence | Faith | Family | Freedom | Generosity | Growth | Health | Honesty | Humour | Impact | Independence | Integrity | Joy | Justice | Kindness | Knowledge | Leadership | Love | Loyalty | Meaning | Nature | Optimism | Passion | Peace | Power | Purpose | Recognition | Respect | Security | Service | Simplicity | Spirituality | Stability | Success | Trust | Wealth | Wisdom

My Top 5 Core Values:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

Reflection question: Am I currently living in alignment with these values? Rate each value 1-10 (1 = not at all, 10 = fully aligned).

PART 2: THE WHEEL OF LIFE AUDIT (10 Minutes)

Rate your current satisfaction in each area from 1-10:

Career / Work: ____/10

Finances / Money: ____/10

Health / Fitness: ____/10

Relationships / Romance: ____/10

Family / Friends: ____/10

Personal Growth / Learning: ____/10

Fun / Recreation: ____/10

Physical Environment: ____/10

Total Score: ____/80

Areas scoring 7+: These are your strengths. Protect and maintain them.

Areas scoring 4-6: These are your growth opportunities. Small improvements here create big impact.

Areas scoring 1-3: These are your urgent priorities. Start here.

PART 3: 3-YEAR VISION (15 Minutes)

Close your eyes for 2 minutes and imagine your ideal life exactly 3 years from today. Everything has gone as well as it possibly could. Now write it down in present tense, as if it is already true:

I wake up in: _____

I spend my morning: _____

My work involves: _____

I earn: _____
My most important relationship looks like: _____
I feel: _____
I am proud of: _____
The biggest change from today: _____

PART 4: 90-DAY SPRINT GOALS (10 Minutes)

Choose the 2-3 lowest-scoring areas from your Wheel of Life. For each, define one specific, measurable goal achievable within 90 days:

Goal 1: _____
Why this matters to me: _____
Specific weekly actions: _____
How I will measure progress: _____
Potential obstacles: _____
My plan for those obstacles: _____

Goal 2: _____
Why this matters to me: _____
Specific weekly actions: _____
How I will measure progress: _____
Potential obstacles: _____
My plan for those obstacles: _____

Goal 3: _____
Why this matters to me: _____
Specific weekly actions: _____
How I will measure progress: _____
Potential obstacles: _____
My plan for those obstacles: _____

PART 5: ACCOUNTABILITY STRUCTURE (5 Minutes)

Goals without accountability are just wishes. Define your structure:

I will review my goals every: _____ (daily/weekly)
My accountability partner is: _____
If I miss a weekly target, I will: _____
I will reward myself at 30 days by: _____
I will reward myself at 90 days by: _____

TEMPLATE 4: The Daily Habits of Highly Fulfilled People -- Cheat Sheet

A single-page cheat sheet that prospects print and pin to their wall. Every time they see it, they think of you.

--- BEGIN TEMPLATE ---

DAILY HABITS CHEAT SHEET

The Morning-to-Evening Routine of Highly Fulfilled People

By [YOUR NAME], Life Coach | [YOUR WEBSITE]

MORNING POWER HOUR (within 60 minutes of waking):

- No phone for the first 20 minutes (non-negotiable -- cortisol + dopamine protection)
- 5 minutes: Gratitude journaling (3 specific things + why they matter)
- 10 minutes: Visualisation (walk through your ideal day in vivid detail)
- 10 minutes: Movement (stretching, yoga, walk -- anything that raises your heart rate)
- 5 minutes: Review your top 3 priorities for the day (not 10, not 7 -- just 3)
- Hydrate: 500ml water before any caffeine

WORK HOURS -- THE FOCUS FRAMEWORK:

- Start with your hardest task (willpower is highest in the morning)
- Work in 90-minute focused blocks followed by 15-minute breaks
- Check email only twice: 11am and 4pm (batch processing, not constant monitoring)
- Say no to anything that does not serve your top 3 goals this quarter
- Take a genuine lunch break away from your desk (minimum 30 minutes)

AFTERNOON RESET (between 2pm-3pm):

- 10-minute walk outside (sunlight resets your circadian rhythm)
- Review morning progress: are you on track with your 3 priorities?
- Quick body scan: where are you holding tension? Breathe into it.
- Hydrate again: most afternoon slumps are dehydration, not tiredness

EVENING WIND-DOWN (starting 2 hours before bed):

- Brain dump: write down everything on your mind (gets it out of your head)
- Prep tomorrow's top 3 priorities (sleep on them -- your subconscious works overnight)
- Screen curfew 60 minutes before bed (blue light suppresses melatonin)
- 10 minutes: read physical book or journal
- Reflection: What is one thing I am proud of today? What would I do differently?

WEEKLY NON-NEGOTIABLES:

- Sunday planning session (30 minutes reviewing the week ahead)
- Minimum 3 hours of self-investment (learning, coaching, growth activities)
- One social connection that energises you (not obligations -- genuine connection)
- One thing purely for fun that has zero productivity value
- Review your goals and adjust weekly actions accordingly

THE 3 RULES THAT TIE IT ALL TOGETHER:

1. Protect your energy like it is your most valuable asset (because it is)
2. What gets scheduled gets done -- put it in your calendar or it will not happen
3. Progress over perfection -- doing 70% of this consistently beats 100% once

Want a personalised routine designed for your specific goals and lifestyle? [YOUR NAME] helps high-achievers build sustainable daily systems.

GRAND TOTAL: ____/125

YOUR RESULTS:

100-125: Thriving -- You are living with exceptional intention. A coach can help you reach the top 1% and maintain momentum.

75-99: Growing -- You have strong foundations with clear areas for growth. Targeted coaching could accelerate your progress dramatically in 90 days.

50-74: Seeking -- You know something needs to change. You have the self-awareness to transform but need structure and support to get there.

25-49: Surviving -- You are going through the motions but not truly living. This is the starting point for the most powerful transformations.

YOUR LOWEST-SCORING SECTION reveals your biggest growth lever. Improving this area will create a ripple effect across every other area of your life.

YOUR HIGHEST-SCORING SECTION reveals your natural strength. This is the foundation to build everything else upon.

[YOUR NAME] offers a complimentary 30-minute Scorecard Review Session where we analyse your results together, identify your top growth lever, and map out a 90-day transformation plan.

No obligation. No hard sell. Just honest guidance from someone who has helped hundreds of clients move from surviving to thriving.

How to Use These Templates

You now have five complete, professionally written lead magnets. Here is exactly how to deploy them for maximum client attraction.

1. Customise the Content: Replace every bracketed placeholder ([YOUR NAME], [YOUR BUSINESS], [YOUR BOOKING LINK], etc.) with your real details. Adjust any examples or scenarios to match your specific niche within life coaching. Add your logo to each template and match the colours to your brand.
2. Choose Your Format: The checklist and cheat sheet work best as single-page PDFs. The mini-guide and workbook work as multi-page PDFs or blog post series. The quiz works best on an interactive platform like Typeform, ScoreApp, or Interact, but also works as a downloadable PDF.
3. Set Up Your Opt-In: Create a landing page with a clear headline, 3-4 bullet points describing what they will get, and an email capture form. Tools like ConvertKit, Mailchimp, Leadpages, or Carrd make this simple. Connect your email provider to automatically deliver the lead magnet after signup.
4. Build Your Follow-Up Sequence: Create a 5-email nurture sequence that delivers value after the download: Email 1 (immediate) delivers the lead magnet. Email 2 (day 2) shares a related tip. Email 3 (day 4) tells a client success story. Email 4 (day 7) addresses common objections. Email 5 (day 10) offers your discovery call.
5. Drive Traffic: Share on social media with a compelling hook (not just 'download my free guide'). Write blog posts that naturally lead to the opt-in. Run a small Facebook or Instagram ad (even GBP5/day can generate 10-20 leads). Add the opt-in link to your email signature, social bios, and every piece of content you create.
6. Test and Iterate: Track your opt-in conversion rate (aim for 25-40% on a dedicated landing page). Track how many leads book a discovery call (aim for 10-20%). Track how many discovery calls convert to paying clients (aim for 30-50%). Double down on whichever lead magnet performs best and create variations of it.

PRO TIPS FOR MAXIMUM RESULTS:

- Deploy one lead magnet at a time. Get it working before adding the next.
- The quiz and checklist typically convert highest because they are interactive.
- Use the workbook as an upsell or bonus for people who book a discovery call.
- Update these templates quarterly with fresh examples and current references.
- Add a personal video walkthrough of each template to dramatically increase perceived value and connection.
